

THE WEEKLY DREW

The Official Newsletter of NAKID • September 13, 2007

Sunday looked pretty lame this past weekend. Should we blame the NFL kickoff? Heat? Mid-season lull? Let's hope it's a one time occurrence.

As the anchor day of NAKID Sunday needs to keep up the partying, bar dancing, and turnout. Please don't make us sad. When you don't come to the bar, we all get sad.

We still have limited spots available for the Wine Festival this weekend, so if you were waiting for one to open up, now is your chance. Check out the Meetup site to RSVP before it fills up again. Hope to see you all there!

NAKID'S THREE HOUR TOUR

Once we got the kinks worked out and the pizzas delivered (long story, don't ask) NAKID set sail for the high seas. Initially it was slow going as the bartenders didn't know how to tap a keg and were checking everyone's IDs (well almost everyone, sorry Josh). But within the first half hour the beers were out and flip cup was underway.

For those who missed out, we feel bad. There's nothing quite like watching NAKIDS clear away a table in under 5 seconds so that flip cup can start, as happened on the lower deck. The true flippers were topside flipping in the wind and making a go of what we are sure was the first games ever played on this boat. It was a sight that warms the cockles of your heart.

About an hour into the cruise and with the beer flowing nicely the captain asked if we wanted to head toward Alexandria or Georgetown, we chose Georgetown for a special treat. As we closed in on Old Town, fireworks were going off! As much as NAKID would like to take credit for these, it was probably more because of the Old Town Arts Festival, but it was still a great surprise for everyone on board.

After the fireworks the spray bottle shots came out, as did the test tubes. We had banana schnapps, fire water, jungle juice, and buttery nipples and watching everyone either down the test tubes or open their mouths for a spray was awesome. Special shot taking kudos go out to Krissy of the Hoochie Mamas and Liz of Clothing Optional - they both did about a dozen jungle juice shots and were not hungover the next day at all! Also a thanks to Jacky and Melissa of Where's Your Beanpot? For showing us how deft they are at lifting test tubes from someone else's cleavage!

As we returned to the dock, having gone through 3 kegs, a couple of dozen bottles, and just about all the shots we wanted to tap the last keg but the captain denied us. "We're 10 minutes from docking," he told us. We responded that we thought 97 NAKIDS could finish the keg in that time period but he wouldn't budge. After people unloaded the party continued in Georgetown and though a few people seemed cranky that they had to take the metro back to the Ugly Mug, most seemed to be happy to stay out later.

Overall, it the NAKID Booze Cruise was lots of fun and a great time. This will definitely be something we do again. Thanks to all who came out and for those of you who missed out, the Wine Festival is this week...

SUNDAY RECAP: BOCCE, TWICE ON SUNDAY, OG GROUP

Bocce:

Team Drunk Monkeys decided to spend the day watching the Patriots and lost by Forfeit to Spare Balls, leaving them as the only undefeated team. The Italian Stallions got crushed again, this time falling to Uncle Luigi, 17-11. Deboccery won its first game of the season by holding off a furious comeback by the Backyard Ballers to win 20-16.

Twice on Sunday:

The Spinal Tappers got their first win of the season in grand fashion by beating Borderline Inappropriate, 11-9. The Tappers trailed 8-2 at one point but stormed back to get into the win column. Hamilton's group was still at the bar and while 3 of them showed up it was not enough as they forfeited to the Mad Cows. In the game of the day the Blue Hoos scored in the final inning to beat Alcoballics West by a 1-0 final. A great pitcher's duel was cracked only by a groundout to second where the ball was held too long. Excellent game though.

OG Chapter:

In the early games, the Blumpkins wiped out My Horny Little Pony, 23-0. The Ponies have been shutout three times in four games this season. But when they do score, they win. Franks n Beans continued the shutout streak by downing the Cleveland Steamers by a final of 5-0. The Bayside Tigers kept the Hoochies losing streak going with a 7-1 win.

In the later games the Sweaty Ball Slammers stayed undefeated by pummeling Clothing Optional, 11-5. Team Bicycle fell to Put on Your Man Pants by a 7-2 score. The Neuticals proved to be better than the DC Hoos, beating them 9-3.

As earlier stated, the bar turnout was really really bad and we hope this is just a one week fluke.

Erotic Photo Hunt: Spread 'Em

I know everyone is too busy playing flip cup, making out, and dancing to play this game at the bar. So I added it in the brew just for you. Find six differences between the two photographs below. The answers are on the last page of the brew, and NO CHEATING!

September 15 Virginia Wine Festival on the Boomerang

We are heading out to the Virginia Wine Festival with the Boomerang Bus, so come and join us! We have both buses going, which means room for 80 NAKIDS! You will need to purchase a ticket to the Festival here: VWF so please do so before you RSVP for the bus. FON are welcome for $25 and we will have some beverages on board to get you started as always. Please make sure NOT to back out within the last week, and all no-shows will be charged $25 before they are allowed to play in NAKID again. THERE IS SOME ROOM LEFT. Sign up on the Meetup site.

September 22 Capitol City Carnival & Beer Festival

The Capitol City Carnival & Beer Festival is a fun experience but like the Vintage Virginia Wine Festival can be a drag when you have to drive home - so we're back on the Boomerang Bus! This trip will be a blast as we travel to the festival in style playing flip cup and drinking beer on the way and then land at the microbrewfest! Please make sure to buy tickets in advance here. As always, FON are welcome for $25 plus the cost of their ticket. Please do not RSVP unless you know you can make it, all no-shows will be charged for their seat. This will be a great event and fits right in with NAKID's true purpose. This event is currently FULL.

Lush & Lushette of the Week

Courtesy of

Al, Franks n Beans - It was Al's birthday Sunday and he celebrated in grand style. The last count he gave was 15 shots, 4 beer drinking races, and many more pitchers. He has a problem remembering the end of the night, so we'll help him out. About half an hour of hurling in Hamilton's followed by a drunken assisted stumble down the stairs past two cops, a drive home by your captain, and flopping onto your bed while knocking over a cd tower. Great job, Al. Happy Birthday LOTW!

Congratulations Al and Lydia!

This season they get not only the coveted NAKID Lush patch to proudly display on their shirt (or anywhere else they want). They also win

2 passes on the Boomerang Bus!

So suck up to them, be their friends, buy them drinks (clearly, they really like drinks!) and maybe you'll get to go with them.

Or you can just push your own tolerance and win your own Boomerang Bus passes. Check out the Boomerang and its trips at www.ridetheboomerang.com

Lydia, Hoochie Mamas - Lydia had not been to a game this season before last week. She attended brunch and commented on how she liked the new fields being so close to the bar. After her bocce match she headed to the bar. She was there for awhile. Seems Lydia just kept drinking and drinking and drinking. She was soon drunk and then soon passed out on the table with people doing things to her, which she will have to see in the pictures. Meantime, she can take solace as LOTW!

GET NAKID EVERY MONTH

You've heard the rumors and you know you've wanted it - well it's finally going to happen - a NAKID calendar! Now, we know we could just get a bunch of scantily clad NAKIDS to pose for us and all of you would snap them up and put them in your bathrooms, but we want them to be a little better than that. As such we have a few themes we'd like to promote:

*We'd like to get every team, kickball and bocce, into the calendar.

*For teams with really fun names we'd like for either you to take a picture of your team in pose or dressed up as your theme or let us do it.

*Anyone willing to get into lingerie, a bathing suit, or less and pose for us would be greatly appreciated.

*Bar dancing pictures (at least a few) will certainly be used.

If you have an idea or want to take a picture on your own (or are willing to take some for us) please send an email to nakid2006@gmail.com and let us know. At this point we have no idea how much they will cost but are looking into it. All proceeds will go to the John Leonard Memorial Fund. We hope at least one person from every team will participate; this will be a really fun thing to do for a great cause.

SPORTS (where the real games are found)

Due to the paltry turnout, the Magic 8 Ball was sad because there was very little flip cup going on. It was so boring at the bar that we actually saw some Hoochie Mamas playing flip cup (which they never do). Props to the Hoos who were playing until the wee hours. Also, Team Bicycle beat Franks n Beans and a few other teams, so they are definitely a team to watch. Neuticals looked good too. Unfortunately there were not enough people playing this week for standings, so we'll have to wait to see if next week is better.

And if anyone can ever beat the Alcoballics.

Weekend Lag

A condition affecting the body's circadian clock, similar to jet lag, but instead stemming from altering one's sleep hours due to a night of hard partying and drinking at MBP and Hamilton's after games rather than from a long flight.

After a long night at MBP on Sunday, Janine is going to suffer from some serious Weekend Lag!
